4. STATEMENT: The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional. [NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

Subject: Petition to Revive an Unintentionally Abandoned
Application under 37 CFR §1.137(b)

Dear Sir/Madam:

This is a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) to revive the above-identified application, which had become abandoned on December 26, 2005, for the failure of taking required action within the maximum statutory period for reply to a final rejection.

A reply to the final rejection was filed on December 26, 2005, with no response from the Office until June 29, 2006 when the Advisory Action was mailed. After received the Advisory Action, the undersigned agent soon realized that the current application had already become abandoned because of the maximum 6-month statutory period rule. The undersigned agent decided to contact the examiner and ask her to issue a Notice of Abandonment right away so that the undersigned agent could file a petition under 37 CFR §1.137(b) to revive the current application and also to file a request for continued examination (RCE). However, after leaving several telephone messages to the examiner about such intention, the undersigned agent failed to get response from the examiner. Finally, the undersigned agent got in contact with the examiner and received the advise from the examiner that the undersigned agent can file the petition as well as a RCE regardless of the Notice of Abandonment. As a result, this petition together with the required RCE were drafted with diligent efforts and submitted herewith.

Overall, the entire delay in filing the required reply after the abandonment of the current application was completely unintentional. The undersigned agent failed to track the 6-month period after filing the response to the final rejection in the first place, and after realized the current application had become abandoned, the undersigned agent erroneously believed that a petition to revive an abandoned application should be filed after receiving a Notice of Abandonment from the Patent Office and thus spent a lot of time in communicating with the Office and waited there for a clarification from the examiner. Please find the form PTO/SB/64 and the required RCE in the attachment. In addition, the petition fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17 (m) is being paid through EFS-WEB by the authorization to deduct from deposit account no. 50,3105.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: 09/12/2006
